

Word Review: Week 1

1. People who are confident about their singing abilities are not afraid to sing in front of other people.
2. Denise thinks she needs new glasses, because reading gives her a headache.
3. I went to see Dr. Jones today for my yearly checkup, and he said that I am a very healthy person.
4. I feel very hot right now, and I think I've come down with a fever.
5. The naughty boy would not listen to his teacher's instructions in class.
6. I could tell the people in the theater were bored, and some of them had even fallen asleep.
7. Amy and Henry got married last year, and they're going to be having a child soon.
8. If you subtract ten from one hundred, you end up with the number ninety.
9. That person is my father's brother, so that makes him my uncle.
10. After talking all day to his class, the teacher had a sore throat.
11. If you have a cold, I can give you some medicine that seems to work.
12. If you have two coins worth twenty-five cents each, then you have fifty cents.
13. My brother's son is my nephew, and he is a very smart boy.
14. The cut on the boy's leg was very painful, but he was trying hard not to cry in front of his friends.
15. Spicy food makes my stomach hurt, so I don't eat it very often.
16. One customer at the store wanted to buy a gift for his wife.
17. I burned the inside of my mouth when I drank the hot coffee too quickly.
18. Tom has a problem with his left ear, and right now he can't hear very well.
19. Mary is an adult now, so she can make her own life decisions.
20. I can't play tennis for a while because I injured my right arm.

Word Review: Week 2

1. If you want something sweet to eat, I have a chocolate bar in my bag.
2. Is the time right on that clock? I don't think it's 3:30 now.
3. This is the first time I have visited this country.
4. After hiking on the hot day, the thirsty hikers drank a lot of water.
5. The chef cut the onion into slices and put them in the frying pan.
6. Can I borrow some money to pay for this meal? I'll pay you back tomorrow.
7. Jane feeds her rabbit carrots every day.
8. I'm going to wear dark blue trousers and a white shirt to the party.
9. Let me finish this email, and I'll come talk to you in a minute.
10. We had better go shopping. There isn't any rice.
11. Jenny put on her pajamas and got ready to go to sleep for the night.
12. You should wipe your mouth with the napkin to be polite while you're eating.
13. The rich man earned over one million dollars last year.
14. If the banana peel is yellow, then it should be ripe enough to eat.
15. If you want a quick lunch, you can just get a hamburger and French fries.
16. Spring is my favorite season because all the trees and flowers start to bloom.
17. You can spread some butter and jam on a slice of bread if you want a snack.
18. Please pour some water into the pot and put it on the stove to boil.
19. I rarely stay out past midnight during the week because I have to get up early.
20. Are there any more cookies?

Word Review: Week 3

1. The mud from the field turned the water in the river brown.
2. Laura can sing well, and she can play two instruments as well.
3. Around her neck, Sheila wore a beautiful diamond necklace.
4. I learned to surf at the beach today, and I rode some pretty big waves!
5. Tina folded her clothes and put them in the drawer in her bedroom.
6. Maria rents an apartment in the city, and she loves city life.
7. When you play tennis, you have to hit the ball over the net to your opponent.
8. When I walk around town, I usually wear sneakers, because they are the most comfortable shoes I own.
9. You should put on gloves to keep your hands warm when you're skiing.
10. Would you like to play a game of chess with me?
11. You can use this glue to attach the stamp to the envelope.
12. It is easy to reheat leftover food in a microwave.
13. The mother put a blanket over her sleeping baby to keep him warm.
14. If you don't understand what the word means, look it up in the dictionary.
15. You should get more exercise if you want to stay fit.
16. Penny parks her car in her garage when she gets home from work each day.
17. Make sure you don't lose your house key, because no one will be home to let you in.
18. If you don't want the rest of your drink, just pour it out in the sink.
19. When the telephone rang, I was in the shower and was unable to take the call.
20. I could hear someone playing the violin in the park as I walked through it.

Word Review: Week 4

1. The businessman spends a lot of time each day contacting clients over the phone.
2. Every country has its own customs.
3. James visited many different cities in America but New York is his favorite.
4. Can you buy a dozen eggs on your way home?
5. There is a storm coming. We should hurry home.
6. The man was far away from me, so I couldn't understand what he was trying to say to me.
7. It's a cloudy day and it might rain later.
8. There are all sorts of animals from Africa at the zoo in this city.
9. In the middle of the room was a table that had cakes and other snacks on it.
10. The teacher will punish students who don't behave properly in class.
11. There was a lot of traffic on the road this morning, so I was late for work.
12. To pass the swim class, you have to swim one full kilometer in the pool without resting.
13. You should never stay outside if there is a(n) lightning storm.
14. Tim works as the manager of a clothing store at the mall.
15. I can lower the temperature in the room if it is too hot for you.
16. Standing on the beach, we could see boats sailing out on the ocean.
17. I took a skiing lesson when I went to Japan during the winter last year.
18. Jill's boyfriend gave her some roses on Valentine's Day.
19. You can get the pills you need at the drugstore on the corner near my house.
20. I bought some snacks and a drink from a food vendor in the night market.

Word Review: Week 5

1. I might be able to help you move this weekend, but it depends on how much work I have to do.
2. The little boy thought there was a monster under his bed.
3. In Australia, you can see koalas eating leaves up in the trees.
4. It's such a beautiful day today, so let's do something outside.
5. Would you like to eat another slice of pizza?
6. There wasn't anybody in the house when I got home from school today.
7. The workers took their break for lunch every day at 12:00 p.m.
8. Ted wasn't in class today because he is feeling sick.
9. The dog buried its bone in the field behind my house.
10. I haven't played this game since I was a kid.
11. The young girl couldn't reach the books on the upper shelves in the library.
12. The bank can be found across the street from the post office.
13. I could see a beautiful white swan swimming in the lake.
14. The colorful butterfly landed on a flower in my garden.
15. Just tell me when to pick you up, and I promise I'll be there on time.
16. If you have a hen to lay eggs, you can have fresh eggs every few days.
17. Alan said goodbye to his friends and walked home from the party alone.
18. I will probably buy the computer; however I have a few questions about it first.
19. There was a car accident on the highway, but no one was badly hurt.
20. You may want to check the weather report before you go hiking tomorrow.

Word Review: Week 11

1. I wear a long overcoat during the winter to keep me warm when I go outside.
2. The woman next to me in the theater was wearing very strong perfume.
3. The cyclist rode his bike in the special lane on the side of the road.
4. Every evening, I spend an hour writing my thoughts in a journal.
5. Betty likes making pottery and she gave me this flower pot as a gift.
6. The city orchestra played a wonderful concert last night, and I was glad that I got to see it.
7. The fresh snow in the mountains should be great for skiing so we should go this weekend.
8. For our vacation this year, my family rented a small cottage on the shore of a lake.
9. Larry is a very messy person, and he never cleans his house.
10. If you want a cup of hot tea, I can boil some water in the kettle.
11. Joanna is using a new shampoo that makes her hair look great.
12. Let's go shopping today. I need some new jeans.
13. This statue is a very common meeting place.
14. I prefer this toothpaste. I think it tastes better.
15. The elevator was out of order, so we all had to climb the stairs to our office.
16. Put the milk in the fridge so that it doesn't go off.
17. According to this timetable, the train should arrive in ten minutes.
18. Excuse me, where is the nearest lavatory?
19. Sally does her laundry every Monday.
20. Tim finished packing his suitcase and got ready for the trip.

Word Review: Week 12

1. You cannot apply to college without first getting your high school diploma.
2. Young students learn how to read and write in elementary school.
3. The professor gave a long lecture about how important the oceans are to the world.
4. Most students learn about five or six different subjects at school each year.
5. If you are feeling sick, you should go to the clinic to get some medicine from a doctor.
6. My plane will stop in England, but Germany is my final destination.
7. Once you buy an automobile you have to pay for gas and many other things on a regular basis.
8. There was a delivery for you earlier, and I put the box on your desk.
9. There is no parking for cars near the museum, so it's best to take public transportation.
10. We took a ferry across the water to get to the island.
11. If there is too much traffic on this road, I know another route we can take.
12. Just drive down this avenue until you get to Broad Street, then take a left.
13. Do you know which terminal we need to go to at the airport?
14. These large trucks can carry a lot of cargo across the country.
15. This city is known for its port that is filled with large ships.
16. There will be a reception held at a hotel after the wedding.
17. To warn ships of an island, there is a large lighthouse that guides them.
18. Near the ocean, there are lots of mansions in which very rich people live in.
19. To save money during her vacation, Ellen will stay at a youth hostel.
20. The subway runs in underground tunnels that were dug beneath the city.

Word Review: Week 13

1. There are additional chairs in the next room if you need a place to sit.
2. There was an enormous statue of a horse in front of the museum.
3. A large percentage of people in this city don't own cars.
4. Stop by the supermarket and buy me a gallon of milk on your way home.
5. A lion needs a large territory to hunt in, and they will attack other lions who try to cross it.
6. This Saturday will be my third wedding anniversary, so I'll be taking my wife out to a nice dinner.
7. The businessman put the papers in his briefcase and left his office.
8. If you want to buy this coat, take it up to the cashier to pay for it.
9. Neil Armstrong was an astronaut and the first person to walk on the moon.
10. To fix my knee, a surgeon will have to operate on it.
11. As an investor, I am concerned about that company's future.
12. James is under a lot of pressure to succeed.
13. The comedian made the audience laugh.
14. There are numerous insects living in the forest.
15. I love that author. I have read everything that she has written.
16. Law is my profession.
17. I pay the rent to my landlady every month.
18. I am trying to find a publisher to publish my book.
19. The technician came to our office to fix the photocopy.
20. Thomas is an editor at the local newspaper.

Word Review: Week 14

1. When the flowers blossom in the spring, the air smells quite beautiful.
2. After the lake has been frozen for a few weeks, the ice should be safe to walk on.
3. The dirt roads near the farm were very muddy from all the recent rain.
4. The typhoon was a disaster for many small towns on the island, and a lot of property was destroyed.
5. We had better get inside, because I can hear a thunderstorm coming, and we don't want to get wet.
6. I love riding on trains and watching the beautiful scenery passing by outside the window.
7. We will need a flashlight if we want to go inside the dark cave.
8. The earthquake caused a landslide that buried some of the houses in the town.
9. I watched as the caterpillar ate the leaf of the plant.
10. The farmer sprayed his crop with a chemical that killed pests.
11. When we were aboard the ship, we got to see whales and other large sea animals.
12. The squirrel climbed a tree to get away from the dog that was chasing it.
13. My uncle has a flock of sheep on his farm, and he gets lots of wool from them.
14. The ducklings swam behind their mother in the pond.
15. Cats have sharp claws that they can scratch you with.
16. The village is very remote. The people who live there don't even have electricity.
17. The cows are eating grass in the meadow.
18. The climbers hiked for days to reach the summit of the mountain.
19. Oil is a very important resource.
20. The farmers are worried about the drought.

Word Review: Week 15

1. Finishing the project ahead of time was a great achievement for David, and he was very proud of himself.
2. We can change the arrangement of the furniture in the room so that people have more space to walk around.
3. The rotting meat inside the refrigerator filled me with disgust.
4. You can take the escalator to the second floor of the building, but if you have a shopping cart, use the elevator instead.
5. These flowers have a beautiful fragrance, so I want to plant some in my garden.
6. The scientists ran an experiment to see if the chemical they created would be able to last in salty water.
7. An old friend of mine found fame and fortune by becoming an actor in Hollywood.
8. I used dye to change the color of my shirt from yellow to red.
9. If you don't have a ticket, you will be denied entry into the theater.
10. Try to describe every detail of the crime you saw when you talk to the police.
11. All of the movie crew's equipment is over there.
12. You are looking for a book in the fiction section. Is that correct?
13. If you shout in the canyon, there will be an echo.
14. You can see bats flying around at dusk.
15. Is there any evidence which shows he is to blame?
16. There is a lot of dust behind the bookcase.
17. I enjoy sitting next to the fountains in the hotel.
18. The discovery of oil changed the country's economy.
19. People ran when they heard the sound of an explosion.
20. There was a feeling of despair in the room.